1. Give me your best David and Goliath story? What makes it a good David and Goliath story?
2. Why do most people call David the underdog? Do you think it is more about David's life to date or Goliath's daunting presence?
3. Why do you think David's reaction in 1 Samuel 17: 26-30 irritated his brother? Why do you think his message reached Saul?
4. How long would it take a normal person to train to beat a man like Goliath? Why do you think David recognized his past experience was good enough to be Goliath? What could we apply to our lives from David's rationale?
5. Why do you think David chose stones over solid armor? What strategy do you see in his thought process?
6. David's victory of Goliath was dominate. Why do you think Goliath, a great experienced warrior, could not see he was overmatched?
7. Do you think David was taunting Goliath and the Philistines in 1 Samuel 17: 45-47? If not, why?
8. Why do Christians feel they are an underdog? What can we apply from this lesson to change that viewpoint?
9. How can HCCC take its own battlefield in the name of the Lord with the conviction that we will be victorious for the Lord?
10. How will you retell the story of David and Goliath now? Is it a different story than in the past?
