Questions For Wednesday Night Discussion

December 13th, 2017 Read Genesis 15 and Romans 4

1. Would you rather drive in rain, snow, or heavy dense fog?
2. What "big worry/fear" has kept you up at night only to realize later that is was silly to worry about?
3. In Genesis 15 verse 1, God tells Abram to not be afraid. Given Abram's past, what could he possibly be afraid of?
4. Why do you think the command "do not be afraid" is referenced in the Bible close to a 100 times?
5. What is at the root of our fears? How can we clear the fog of fear in our lives?
6. In Genesis 15, God initiates a conversation with Abram. Does God do that in our lives today? How and why?
7. What keeps us from hearing God's conversation with us? How does reminding ourselves who God is help us with our belief?
8. What did Abram do to earn righteousness? How does Romans 4 compare to your answer?
9. What would it have meant if Abram had to earn his righteousness? (see Romans 4:14). Would that affect us today?
10. Why does God delay in blessing us at times? Does God's delays lessen how good He is? Why?
11. Do you believe you have a signed and delivered covenant with God? If so, what do you need to do to have a conversation with God?
