

Lesson 9: What Say You?

January 14th, 2018

Scripture: Genesis 18; Luke 19: 1-10

One Long Day

• Abraham and Sarah's _____

• God's Response _____

• God's Message _____

---

Questions For Wednesday Night Discussion

January 17th, 2018 Read Genesis 18 and Luke 19:1-10

1. If your house was a total mess, would you invite a friend over? How about a stranger?
2. In the story of Zacchaeus, why did Jesus invite himself to stay at Zacchaeus house?
3. Why did Jesus state Zacchaeus became a son of Abraham?
4. How do you picture an angel? Does it match the angels that appear to Abraham in Genesis 18:2?
5. What aspects of Abraham's response show his heart condition for the Lord?
6. In what areas do we need to improve our response to God?
7. Why do you think God brings Sarah the news of a son and Abraham the news of Sodom and Gomorrah on the same day?
8. Why would God need to go to Sodom and Gomorrah to see how bad the outcries are?
9. In the second half of Genesis 18, Abraham bargained with God over how many righteous people required to save Sodom and Gomorrah. How do we bargain with God today concerning righteousness?
10. Why can't we be counted as righteous based off our life's work?
11. What do you need to change to have a better response to God?