Wednesday Discussion

Colossians 1:1-2

1. What comes to mind at the question, "Who are you"?
2. When somebody asks what you do, what's your answer?
3. What do you enjoy most about the answer to that question?
4. What are your thoughts on why Timothy is included in the opening?
5. Where do grace and peace come from?
6. How can Paul extend this grace and peace? Is it his to extend?
7. What is the need for extending grace and peace?
8. How is it possible to do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus (Colossians 3:17)?
9. Why was Paul so active in Judaism?
10. Why was Paul trying so hard to end Judaism (Galatians 1:13-14)?
11. How was Paul kicking against goads? Was he aware of the goads?
12. What kind of psychology and turmoil do you think must have been involved in the change of identity Paul experienced?
13. What are the dangers of organizing any system by group identities?
14. How does being 'in Christ' and 'of Christ' change the way identities are organized?
15. Consider how your life and identity is connected to Jesus as Lord.
