Plausible Arguments

Wednesday Discussion

Colossians 2:1-5

1. Is it necessary to hear both sides of a case, issue, argument?
2. Have you ever experienced Proverbs 18:17?
3. Why are we prone to not hearing different views? Why do we tend toward polarization (left & right)?
4. Define what “plausible” argument means.
5. Some say morality exists because it is merely reasonable. People agree on certain rules so that society can function. Agree or disagree?
6. Why don't we write a new ten commandments based on the latest science?
7. Why is it that we can be deluded by plausible arguments?
8. Any ideas on how All the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden in Christ?
9. Does being knit together in love provide a protection against being deluded by plausible arguments?
10. Are there any indications to look for that might be a clue we are facing a plausible argument?
11. Is it possible your life and actions are being influenced by a plausible argument(s) in a way you are not aware?
