

Protection from Plausible Arguments

Colossians 2:1-7

Review

Knit together for protection

Goals or outworking of being knit together

- Reach riches of full assurance of understanding

- Richness in knowledge of God's mystery

- Good order and firm faith

Wednesday Discussion

Colossians 2:1-7

1. Tell us about something you have built, sewn, knit (etc.).
2. Were you happy or satisfied with the completed project? If so, why?
3. What were the first steps toward completing a satisfactory job?

What might have derailed the process or caused flaws in the finished product?
4. Is there a difference between full assurance of understanding and full understanding?
5. How is it possible to be a forgiven and reconciled believer who needs the knowledge of God's mystery, which is Christ?
6. How does being knit together in love accomplish these things?
7. How do these provide any hedge against delusion by plausible arguments?
8. Good order is an official arrangement/orderly condition. Why does the organization of this church cause rejoicing in Paul?
9. How does good order factor into hedging against delusion?
10. Are there any areas of action that do not need a knowledge Christ?
11. How does this apply to your parenting, working, pleasure pursuits, marriage, daily routines (sleep, eat...), etc.?
12. Will you know it if you are deluded? How can you be made aware?
