

To Be or Not To Be a Child

Eve and Innocence

Genesis 2:16-17; 3:1-7

Innocence, Wisdom, Child-likeness, Milk, and Meat

Innocence is to be prized

Be skilled in knowledge of God's word

It is a knowledge that must be practiced

There is nothing redeeming in a knowledge of evil

Wednesday Discussion

Genesis 2:16-18 & 3:1-7

1. Innocent children do some funny things. Any stories?
2. Have you ever caught someone trying to scam you? How did you react? How did you know it was a scam?
3. Why do you think Eve held a conversation with an animal?
4. Who was given the command not to eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil?
5. Where do you think Adam was during the conversation? Was Adam deceived? What should he have done if he saw Eve talking to the serpent or when she handed him the fruit?
6. Did Eve add to God's word? If so, was it wrong? Dangerous?
7. Why is it necessary to study carefully? Why is it necessary to practice the truth?
8. If we think that Eve twisted a really simple command are things any different today? What really simple truths are twisted in today's age?
9. How can you help the church avoid being led astray?
10. How can you affect our culture? Where can you get power, if there is any, to affect our culture?
11. Can you identify any areas in your life that aren't affected by the Word? Are there any qualities that are lacking in your walk?
12. Is there anyone you can think of that needs your help in avoiding deception?
13. Is there fruit you want to eat because you think it will help you know more or be more fulfilled? Is God withholding something good from you?
