

Romans 2:3-5, Ephesians 2:4-7; 4:32, Titus 3:4-7

Two Kinds

1. Name a kind person whom you know? What makes them kind?
2. Name an unkind person? What makes them unkind?
3. How do ideas of goodness, integrity, and moral excellence fit within a concept of kindness?
4. Is it possible to do good things that are not a product of kindness?
5. Why does Paul say that none, no one, not even one is good (kind) in Romans 3:12? Is that true?
6. (Kids) How can we be allowed into God's heaven if we are not kind?
7. What is the path to becoming a kind person?
8. In Ephesians 4:32, how is kindness integral to forgiveness?
9. Is it a true statement that God's love, grace, mercy, rich blessings and delayed wrath come from his kindness?
10. How does kindness become a part of who we are?
11. Can you help us understand kindness with practical examples of how it might play out in our lives?
12. Next time you're feeling unkind, how will you identify it and what will you do about it?
13. Put the old self to death and seek the things that are above.
